

The Beehive

vintage lifestyle shop

The Beehive Press Release May 2013

The Beehive, based in the busy market town of Devizes in Wiltshire, was established by Chris and Sarah Hood in 2008. This family run business specialise in selling unique antique and vintage furniture and stunning lifestyle accessories for the home and garden.

The Beehive is filled with an assortment of beautiful "must-haves" from French furniture and country benches to pretty china and vintage linens - aromatherapy bath oils and lavender hearts compliment unusual lamps and pretty wall planters.

This unique shop offers a wide range of both traditional and contemporary gift ideas - choose from gorgeous soaps or rustic bird boxes to stylish lanterns and quirky signs - all ideal for birthdays, weddings, anniversaries or just for a treat!

Larger items of carefully sourced country and French furniture include: vintage dressers, chapel chairs, French armoires, linen cupboards and wardrobes - all lovingly restored and presented.

The Beehive are also experts in sourcing furniture for clients and offer this as a bespoke service and will also re-upholster specific items of furniture upon request. Commissions for individual items of furniture to be hand-painted are also considered.

The shop are proud to be stockists of Kate Forman fabrics, Annie Sloan paints and Woodwick candles and diffusers.

New products are constantly being added to the collections – new for summer 2013 include stunning new wrought iron planters and garden shelves along with beautiful floral arrangements. The Beehive also stock a fabulous range of leather bags on sale throughout the year and an extensive collection of glassware.

For further information please contact The Beehive - 01380 729720 - or visit: www.thebeehivelifestyle.com

All Press enquiries to Kate Chadwick at kate@ChadwickPR.com or contact 01980 621209/0778 672 3958